

April Vacation Youth Programs

At the Winslow Public Library

Saturday, April 15– Robot Time with Dash & Dot , 10 AM—12 PM– Program our new robot friends to do different tasks, or just pop in to see how fun they are. Best for grades 2 and up.

Tuesday April 18– Ms. Jenn and the Nutrition Detectives, 10 –11 AM—Come learn all about nutrition at this fun story time with us! Fun for ages 0-7 and beyond.

Tuesday April 18– Get a Clue!, 2:30-4 PM Participants will solve a crime as they explore the science behind criminal investigations. Hands-on activities include learning investigative techniques like fingerprinting, and the basics of forensic science. These activities are geared to an audience aged 6 -14 years old.

Thursday April 20– Reading With Cole 2-4 PM. Register for a 15 minute spot to read with our reading therapy dog, Cole! Reading to a therapy dog can increase children’s confidence in reading, as dogs are nonjudgmental listeners.

Friday April 21– Finger-Knitting & More 1-2 PM. Join us for an hour of crafting with yarn! Feel free to knit or crochet with your fingers, hands, needles or hook. Open to all ages.

Friday April 21– Lego Club: 2:30-4. Stop in and build with all of our cool Legos! Open to grades K-12.

Saturday April 22– Pokémon Fun! 10-11 AM. Join us for Pokémon crafts and lures for Pokémon Go! Celebrate your love with other people who enjoy Pokémon as much as you. Aimed at children and families.
