Monthly Report for May

Town of Winslow

June 5, 2012

General Assistance:

General Assistance applications have been picking up, we see more people out of work and benefits have been exhausted.

The new General Assistance guidelines will need to be approved by the Council; these reduced benefits will start July 1st, 2012.

Conservation District:

Waiting for final approval of the Council.

Building Permit Report:

New Building is starting to move forward with an increase in major permits.

We have issued twenty-seven (27) permits this month and collected $1,613.00 in fees with an estimated value of $423,094.00.
